Will you buy into a bit of Ashburton's past, and future?

Imagine Ashburton, with a new centre. A space for meeting together, for performing and rehearsing, and for watching and listening above all a place to enrich our community.

The Methodist Church could be that place.

The Methodist Church is being sold. We think that it should be kept and used for the people of Ashburton and Dartmoor. We have done some initial investigations as to what it might cost to buy and convert. We have spoken to potential supporters and funders. We have identified a large group of people who want to help keep this fine building in community hands and who are excited by what could happen there.

We are Ashburton Arts. At the moment, we are a small team who have been working in the background to explore what might be possible. Now that we know how and when the Methodist Church is being sold, we need to move fast to secure it for the town.

Then we can work with a much wider group to decide how the building should be used and run; raise money; draw up plans - and turn this wonderful building into a vibrant centre for the performing arts, and much more.

We need your help to raise £150,000 - to buy the building at auction and to start work on its transformation.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

- Could you offer an outright donation?
- Could you provide a long-term, interest-free loan?
- Could you buy a share in this not-for-profit community enterprise?
- Or, could you invest your time and expertise to support this venture?

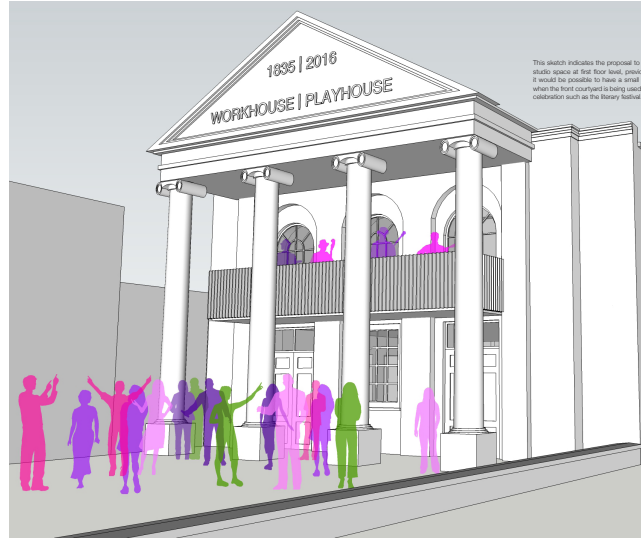

You can help by investing any amount, from £10 to £10,000. Any support will help to bring the building back to life.
